A World Of Colour
Spring 2018

Key Themes to look out for

- Bright statement colours, including the use of iridescents
- Tropical Asian style and flavour (look to the Philippines and Malaysia as key influencers)
- Bold patterns
- Artwork on tableware
- Caribbean food and rum cocktails
- Making dining fun
- “Take life easy” and relaxed dining - sharing food
- Multicultural influences. Food without borders
- Putting a personal stamp on venues
- Embracing childlike fun in desserts with “Freakshakes”
- Build your own food (ramen, burgers, pizza, salads etc.)
- Pineapple print and pineapple tableware

Life can be a little serious sometimes. Escapism will be a key theme to attract diners in coming years, offering them a bright, fun environment while serving food that isn't constrained by borders: fish and chips alongside poké, noodle bowls and falafel, milkshakes and ice cream topped with slices of cake, sweets and waffles. The only limitation is imagination for this fun, carefree and truly multicultural trend.

Inspiration will be taken from a vast array of sources, taking the best bits of everything and offering them all together.

A World Of Colour

Dining without borders is a key theme in this trend. Multiculturalism isn't just restricted to the food in this movement; colours, patterns and authentic dishes from all over the globe will be equally as important. Don't be fearful of mixing patterns, styles and colours; in a trend focused on fun and expression, there's no need to worry about the little things.

Diners can take control with “create your own” Ramen bowl, either in a buffet style or menued items that are ordered with service staff. Both options let diners create their own meal and have fun doing so.

“Bowl Food” is going to continue to take the dining world by storm. With its multicultural nature, it will work alongside this trend of using bright colours and bold patterns. See our full Bowl Food trend brochure for more details and ideas.

I'M IN

TRENDS

Colours and patterns don't have to be over the top either. For higher end venues, more subtle, sophisticated colours and textures can be introduced to complement existing white settings, adding subtle splashes of colour, texture and personality.

Complementary table accessories are an effective, easy and safe way to start introducing colour into table settings. Using bright salt and pepper mills, feature plates or even statement chargers is a perfect way to revive your table setting without committing to the cost of a full service.

Look to Ameia in the coming months for iridescent cutlery potentially in development for 2018.

A World Of Colour

‘Freakshakes’ are a new, key feature that deserves attention. Super indulgent milkshakes topped with all manner of creams, cakes, sweets and other treats can be served. These indulgent treats can be served in mason jars, sundae glasses or even wine glasses.

Cocktails and drinks can be another easy way to really let loose with fun and colour. Cocktails in pineapples, bright coloured tiki heads, or pearl effect glasses are all exciting options. Creative barware and glasses are a really easy and effective way to rejuvenate your restaurant or bar's style.

Colour for Premium venues

Villeroy & Boch
1748

Colour and pattern don't have to be an informal affair. Premium venues can introduce subtle splashes of colour and pattern with high quality tableware made from both premium porcelain and bone china.

Steelite Puebla

Puebla brings old world charm to both traditional and modern cuisine. Hand painted by authentic skilled Mexican artisans, Puebla is undeniably sophisticated, unpretentious and affordably priced. A fantastic way to bring a splash of Latin flair and colour to an intentionally "mixed and matched" table setting. Each colourway consists of 19 pieces.
